June 2018 Newsletter

Exciting News

The Ohio Arts Council (OAC) is coordinating the following "2018 Artists Spotlight: Works by Ohio's Military Women at the Ohio Governor's Residence". The exhibit will be in the Governor's Residence from mid May - July with an artists reception in June. Carolyn Nagy is one of seven women veterans whose art work will be on display. The picture is titled "Looking In" and was taken in 2017 at the Ohio Reformatory (Mansfield, Ohio).

Veterans Discounts

Denise Schantz would like to remind WVI members that there are a number of restaurants in the Toledo area that offer veterans discounts. Here are a few of the Toledo area restaurants listed on the internet:

Applebee's	Arby's
Boston Market	Chipotle
Denny's	IHOP
Lone Star (Mondays)	Pizza Hut
Schlotzky's Deli	Subway
Taco Bell	Wendy's
Long John Silver's	Cracker Barrel

Reminder:

Check individual stores, visit websites, or call ahead as discounts vary by date and location.

Veterans might need to show ID. Veteran ID can be obtained from your county Veterans Service Commission - for Lucas County the VSC is located on Arlington Avenue in Toledo near UTMC.

Women Veterans Night Out

Come and join your fellow women veterans for an evening of conversation, networking, and good food at Caper's Pizza Bar (2038 S. Byrne Road, Toledo) at 5:30pm on Wednesday, June 20, 2018. Special: 25% off on all pizza. Not interested in pizza, Caper's offers a full menu. RSVP to Carolyn Nagy at cenagy@bex.net by June 19. If you feel like attending at the last minute please feel free to join us.

2018 Veterans Summer Picnic

US Vets, Inc. is planning a free summer picnic for veterans, families, and friends on July 20 (Sunday) at Wildwood Metropark, Whitetail Shelter #1 from 11:30am - 3:00pm. This veteran appreciation event is family friendly. There will be good food, music, and games. Please bring a nonperishable food item for the Toledo Food Bank and a covered dish. Last year USVI grilled ribs and provided beverages and salad. RSVP by: July 17 to Leslie at lclouden7@gmail.com or Chris at chriscreamean@yahoo.com (419-206-5979)

Affordable Senior Housing

If you are looking for nice low cost housing with many amenities you might want to contact Pelham Manor and/or Northgate Senior Apartments. The monthly rent is 30% of your income. There is a lengthy application to complete and a waiting list for both facilities. If interested:

Pelham Manor 2700 Pelham Rd., Toledo.
419-534-6657. email: shelly@jewishtoledo.org

Northgate Senior Apartments 610 Stickney Ave., Toledo. 419-729-7118 Ashlee Jones (Property Manager).

Homebound Delivery

Toledo Lucas County Public Library delivers Library materials to customers who have difficulty leaving home because of temporary or permanent physical disabilities. Customers can request books, movies, music, and more. To sign up contact Outreach Services at 419-259-5350 for home bound delivery Monday - Friday from 8:00am - 4:30pm. No library card, not a problem. The Library will assist with your receiving a card.

The Cost of Long Term Care

Prudential and Women Veterans Initiative are offering a free session to answer questions you might have about the cost of long term care to you and/or your family. Questions like "What is spend down?" or "Is my home protected?" will be answered. (Note: This is not a session to sell long term care health insurance)

June 19, 2018 (Tuesday)
6:30pm - 7:30pm

Prudential office at 1705 Indian Wood Circle, Suite 115, Maumee, Ohio

Light snack provided

RSVP by 6/15/18 to Carolyn Nagy at cenagy@bex.net
